
Luke 10:27

The Law says, “Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart and with all thy soul and with all thy strength and with all thy mind and thy neighbor as thyself.”

John 13:34–35

Now I am giving you a new command—love one another. Just as I have loved you, so you must love one another. This is how all men will know you're my disciples, because you have such love for one another.

Ephesians 5:1–2

So then you should try to become like God, for you are His children and He loves you. Live your lives in love—the same sort of love which Christ gave us as an offering and a sacrifice well-pleasing to God.

1 John 4:16–18

So we have come to know and trust the love God has for us. God is love, and the man whose life is lived in love does, in fact, live in God, and God does, in fact, live in him. So our love for HIM grows more and more, filling us with complete confidence for the day when He shall judge all men—for we realize that our life in this world is actually His life lived in us. Love contains no fear—indeed fully developed love expels every particle of fear, for fear always contains some of the torture of feeling guilty. The man who lives in fear has not yet had his love fully perfected.

1 John 4:20–21

If a man says, “I love God” and hates his brother, he is a liar. For if he does not love his brother before his eyes, how can he love the one beyond his sight? And in any case it is His explicit command that the one who loves God must love his brother too.

Psalm 36:2

Transgression speaks to the ungodly within his heart; there is no fear of God before his eyes. For in his own eyes he flatters himself too much to detect or hate his own sin.

Matthew 7:4

How can you say to your brother, “Let me take the speck out of your eye,” when there is a plank in your own? You hypocrite! Take the plank out of your own eye first, and then you can see clearly to remove your brother’s speck of dust.

2 Corinthians 3:18

But we all, with unveiled face beholding as a mirror the glory of the Lord, are being transformed into the same image from glory to glory, just as from the Lord, the Spirit.

Luke 6:27

But I say to all of you who will listen to me: love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, bless those who curse you, and pray for those who treat you spitefully.

Matthew 6:14–15

For if you forgive other people their failures, your heavenly Father will also forgive you. But if you will not forgive other people, neither will your Father forgive your failures.

Deuteronomy 30:19

This day I call the heavens and the earth as witnesses against you that I have set before you life and death, blessings and curses. Now choose life, so that you and your children may live.
